

Commercial Truck Driving Program MVR Driving Record Acknowledgement

My signature below indicates that I understand the the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) guidelines for acquiring a commercial driving license.

Certain violations while operating a motor vehicle may disqualify you for a period of time up to and including disqualification for life. Below is information regarding these violations which was taken directly from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's (FMCSA) website regarding obtaining a commercial driver's license. Students are required to have read and understood the FMCSA's guidelines for acquiring their CDL license. If any discrepancy between the below guidelines and the FMCSA guidelines exist, the FMCSA guidelines shall take precedence.

Disqualifications

Using a CMV or non CMV in the commission of a felony involving manufacturing, distributing, or dispensing a controlled substance will result in a disqualification for life, without the possibility of reinstatement.

Disqualification for Major Offenses (see explanation of major violations below)

The first violation for a major violation, in a CMV or a non-CMV, results in a 1-year disqualification or a 3-year disqualification if transporting hazardous materials required to be placarded. The second violation for a major violation, in a CMV or a non-CMV, results in a lifetime disqualification. The driver may be eligible for reinstatement under certain conditions after 10 years.

Disqualification for Serious Traffic Violations (see explanation of serious violations below)

The first violation for a serious violation does not result in a disqualification. A second serious violation within 3 years, results in a 60-day disqualification, and a third serious violation within 3 years, results in a 120-day disqualification. Serious disqualifications must be served consecutively. All serious violations in a CMV are included. Serious violations in a non-CMV must not be included, unless it results in the revocation, cancellation, or suspension of the CDL holder's license or non-CMV driving privileges.
